

Jasło – my city, my home

Information about the City

Geographical location

- south-eastern part of Poland
- Subcarpathian Voivodeship (region), Jasło County
- valley of three rivers: Ropa, Jasiołka and Wisłoka

Inhabitants

about 33,5 thousand

Area

36,52 km²

City - Phoenix

Velut phoenix in cinere, means "Like a Phoenix from the ashes".

This Latin phrase perfectly describes our city.

For Jasło has a beautiful but difficult history.

It was the only city in Europe to be almost completely destroyed, not as a result of warfare, but as a result of premeditated destruction.

Although 97 per cent of the city was destroyed, Jasło revived like a phoenix from the ashes. This was due to the indomitable will and determination of its inhabitants.

Potentials

Residents with great determination and will to act,
 geographical location,
